Dear Jeff:

In response to your needs for Professional Engineering and Registered Architectural services, we provide the following:

CDS projects are designed in accordance with the latest edition of applicable building codes. In specific, South Kentucky RECC's District Office in Whitley City will be designed, and will be constructed, in accordance with the 2002 Kentucky Building Code and the Americans with Disabilities Act. The Russell Springs District Office (and other district offices), as well as the New Headquarters Facility in Somerset will also comply, as described above. Design work and Construction Documents for these projects will be provided by the required Professional Engineers and Registered Architects.

I hope this information is adequate for your needs.

Sincerely,

CDS ASSOCIATES, INC.
